GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Exciting Scene in the New York Legislature—Members Threatened by the Mob.

NEW YORK, May 19.—There was an exciting scene in the State assembly at Albany yesterday, on the question of passage of the appropriation bill of $1,000,000, to complete the capitol building. Working men had been given to understand, he bill would be passed even if the Governor vetoed it. When the roll was called the necessary two thirds vote to override the veto was wanting. The crowd in the galleries yelled against those who voted against the workingmen's interest and some of the members who appeared outside were beaten and driven back by the yelling crowd, and members were obliged to escape by the rear door to their hotels. A large body of police arrived subsequently and drove the crowd from the capitol and from the Governor's house, which was threatened. A large crowd then went to Delavon house and other hotels, threatening to mob members, and in some cases squads followed the members to their rooms in the hotels threatening vengeance by the workingmen, finally the police in great numbers managed to disperse the mob.

The Russian Fleet.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Tribune says it has reason to believe the Russian fleet is now watching the coast for the purpose of intercepting vessels having munitions of war on board for Turkey, and it is stated that the Russian commander has been informed that a steamer would soon leave the vicinity of New Haven with a large cargo for Turkey.

The World reiterates that the Russian fleet left because of the request to that effect from Evarts to Alexis. The request was made privately.

Commodore Garrison.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Commodore Garrison appears slowly improving from Thursday's attack. It was faintness and dizziness, followed by symptoms of partial paralysis of the right side, soon yielding to remedial measures. The physician attributes the attack to Garrison's persistence in visiting his office early after recent slight operations for hemorrhoids, also to excitement because of heavy and doubtful investments in telegraph stocks. It will be remembered he recently joined Keene and Jay Gould in the Atlantic and Pacific stock raid against the Western Union telegraph. One physician says the difficulty is congestion of the brain, another attributes it to feeble action of the heart, occasioned by the recurrence of paralytic symptoms characterized by a slight numbness only. His condition is critical, but no immediate danger apprehended.

Ex-President Lerdo Interviewed.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Lerdo, ex-President of Mexico, was interviewed here yesterday. He denied that he was conferring with filibusters in Washington and California, but expects to be called back by the people, when he will return with a sufficient number of followers to assert his right to the Presidential chair. His plans lie with his people, and he is positive they will cry out for him to return.

A dispatch from New Orleans says Iglesias, with his secretary, Prerato, and Gen. Palacio who have been holding communication with Gen. Escobedo, have been summoned to New York by Lerdo. Though denial is made, it is certain they have purchased large quantities ammunition, which has been sent to the frontier. The same dispatch says private advices received by last steamer report a strong party forming in Texas relative to American protection and intervention. The present condition of affairs is represented as very unsettled, and leading land owners from Northern Mexican States are largely in favor of annexation. It is proposed that the United States take five northern States and assume payment of the Mexican bonded debt which is largely held in this country and upon which no interest has been paid for several years.

Notable Death.

BANGOR, Me., May 19.—Ex Gov. Kent died here to day.

The Burnt District in New York.

WATERTOWN, May 18.—Harrowing accounts of suffering and destitution come from the burnt district in Clinton county. A large tract of rich farming country is swept clear of buildings, fences, trees and stock. Crops put in ground are destroyed. People are utterly destitute, helpless and without resources.

Grant's Estimate of Himself.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Following is the farewell address of Ex President Grant, made while steaming down the Delaware. "My dear friends; I was not aware we would have so much speech making here, or that it would be necessary for me to say any more to you, but I feel that the compliments you have showered upon me were not altogether deserved. They should not all be paid to me, either as soldier or civil officer. No man can fill both or either of these positions without the help of good men. I selected my lieutenants when I was in both positions, and they were men I believe who could have filled my place often better than I did. I never flattered myself I was entitled to the place you gave me. My lieutenants could have acted perhaps better than I, but opportunity presented itself. Sherman could have taken my place as a soldier or in civil office, and so could Sheridan and others I might name. I am sure if the country ever comes to this need again there will be men for the work. There will when born for every emergency. Again I thank you, and again I bid you good bye and repeat that if I had called Sherman or Sheridan, or some of my other lieutenants would have succeeded."

A Mormon's Mad Act.

CLEVELAND, March 18.

This evening Mrs. Donovan, after some trouble with her husband, took her two children, a boy and girl, went to the river near Willow-street bridge, jumped in and drowned herself and both children. The bodies were recovered.

Effects of the "Policy."

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Times' editorial says of the special election in Chester county, South Carolina, on Monday, General Walker, Democrat, was elected senator by 1,000 majority. Hayes had 500 majority and Chamberlain 1,400 in that county last November. Thus is the party built up by conciliation.

Interest on the Portion not Repudiated.

COLUMBIA, May 18.—The House of Representatives, by 74 to 25 adopted a clause in the appropriation bill which provided $270,000 to pay January and July interest of the present year upon consolidation bonds of the State issued under the act to reduce the volume of the public debt.

Horace Carpenter.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Horace Carpenter's condition has materially improved since the breaking of the abscess in his stomach. Hopes are now entertained of his slow recovery.

Council with Indians.

CHEYENNE, May 19.—General Crook with Major Randall and Lieutenant Schuyler leave here in the morning for the agencies where a final grand council will be held which must be simply a formality, as the disarmament of Indians renders their disposition easily obtained. A small band of Cheyennes arrived at Red Cloud Wednesday bringing in some 200 horses. The Indians are convinced that the government is acting in good faith and are evincing a like fidelity to terms of surrender.

Steamboat Sunk.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The Times Sioux City special says about 11 30 yesterday morning the government steamer J D Cameron, while proceeding up the river from below en route to Post No. —, Tongue river, struck a snag, which penetrated the bow and sunk the steamer in 14 feet of water within 40 minutes. Her companion steamer the Gen Sherman was summoned and saved the passengers 90 in all including Gen Miles 18 officers wives and children. This morning Major Hughes, quartermaster here, chartered some vessels going to the wreck. The cargo is nearly a total loss. Its value is $120,000, chiefly government stuff. Gen Miles loss is $5,000 insurance $3,000. It is hoped the Cameron can be raised and repaired.

The Rockford Disaster.

ROCKFORD Ill., May 19.—The coroner's house investigation is proceeding slowly. The experts have decided that the blame was divided. Superintendent Latham testified to-day. His testimony was favorable to Richardson the contractor, and unfriendly to Gay the architect. Adjourned till Monday.

Forest Fires.

PORTSVILLE May 19.—Forest fires have been spreading rapidly between Stevenson death and Mohannan plains. This afternoon the bridge near Tracksville, the timbers of which were smouldering, gave way while the Shenandoah train was passing. An unknown man on the bridge was crushed to death. The stage passengers escaped.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 19.—General Sherman Secretary of War McCrary and other officers made an inspection here to-day. The party will leave for Providence and Boston.

Miller and Roelle, Junker & Co. to satisfy judgments obtained by the government against these parties on account of illicit whisky operations, but was unable to find any property and was informed by the parties named they had none.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Chamberlain to be Solicitor.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The World's Washington special says the Solicitorship of the Treasury has been offered to D. H. Chamberlain.

Was Pinney a Deserter?

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Further inquiry at the Navy Department to-day elicited the statement that Acting Secretary Hewit's letter of September 23, 1875, disapproving Spalding's cancellation of Pinney's appointment, and saying Pinney will be marked as a deserter, was actually in order to Spalding to thus mark Pinney on his (Spalding's) books and records. Compliance or non-compliance with an order of this kind does not necessarily become a matter of record in the Navy Department here until proceedings of some sort are instituted, and it has always been assumed, and is now assumed by the department, that Spalding obeyed this order. If he did not obey, it never does remains in until withdrawn or canceled by the department only this has not been done. The Navy Department, since Pinney's return to California, has complied with a suggestion telegraphed by Paymaster Cunningham, that Pinney should be allowed temporary immunity for perhaps 60 days in order to give him reasonable opportunity to make good the losses caused by his fraudulent transactions, but the department has not relinquished any of its right to institute all proceedings against Pinney which the interest of the government and public justice may in its judgment demand.

Still Counting in Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A despatch from New Orleans says the new State board of canvassers met to day and began to count the returns from the parishes of St. Martin and New Iberia, which were not counted by the Packard returning board. Certain boxes from these parishes were not counted owing to their being read too late and the count now will materially alter the electoral vote. These changes may make a basis for opening the Presidential question when Congress meets, though it is stated they will only affect the parochial officers and members of the legislature.

Immigration Report.

It is reported there are some strange revelations in the quarterly report upon immigration which is made by the bureau of statistics. England sends more immigrants than Ireland, while the single Canadian province of Quebec does nearly as well. Distant Australasia sends several times as many as South America. Turkey and India do better than Japan, while China is exceeded only by England and Germany.

Senator Jones on Resumption.

BALTIMORE, May 19.—A special from Washington says that Senator Jones, of Nevada, who has been one of the foremost of the hard money advocates, seems to have backslidden and is credited with saying that he does not believe the time will ever come when gold specie payments can be resumed. The Senator is very anxious to have silver made the universal circulating medium. He says that, in his belief, it will be impossible to secure from Congress any additional legislation to carry out the provisions of the resumption act of 1875, and holds that without additional legislation that act amounts to nothing.

A Vacant Judgeship.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Chief Justice Lewis, of Washington Territory, has tendered his resignation which has been accepted, but no appointment has yet been made to fill the vacancy.

Why the Russian Fleet Left.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—It is authoritatively stated at the State Department, there is no foundation for the report that the Russian fleet left New York in consequence of a request of information from the U. S. government.

Virginia Revenue Matters.

Col. J. G. Brady of Virginia, was to day appointed collector of internal revenue for the second Virginia district in place of Geo. S. Richards, originally of Maine but who has been holding office in Virginia for the last 12 years. This is the first appointment of the kind made by the President and is supposed to indicate a policy of preference for native Republicans in appointments to office in the South.

Another telegram was received by the internal revenue office to-day from Collector Mills at Lynchburg in which he says the shooting affair in that district recently resulted in the shooting of four illicit distillers and one citizen and not in mortally wounding of one and shooting of four United States officers, as was at first supposed.

Secretary of Montana.

JAMES H. MILLS was to-day appointed secretary of Montana vice James Callaway.

Pinney's Relation to the Navy.

WASHINGTON May 19.—Secretary Thompson having returned to the capital was interviewed by a representative of the California associated press to day and fully corroborated in every particular the statements telegraphed you last night in relation to the Navy Department's past actions and present attitude concerning Pinney. The Secretary added very emphatically that the department to day or since precisely the same position in regard to Pinney that it occupied the day after he ran away from California. We have not waived any of our rights and powers. Secretary Thompson has read and still reads all the San Francisco papers closely on this subject and is carefully watching the progress of events.

Prize Money Suits Decided.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday decided the celebrated suits of Admiral Porter and officers and men of the North Atlantic squadron for prize money on account of the capture of the Richmond. The court unanimously reversed former proceedings and dismissed all libels. Libellants still have the privilege of appealing to the Supreme Court of the United States.

To War Employes.

WASHINGTON May 20.—The Secretary of War has issued an order saying employes for whose payment no appropriation has been made for the next fiscal year, will be allowed to continue on duty only in cases where service is absolutely necessary and ordered by the proper authority, and where they will stipulate they do so voluntarily and without contract or agreement to be paid. Persons rendering services without contract or agreement may be furnished with certificate showing the time for which such service is rendered, but the holder has no claim for compensation unless Congress shall make an appropriation therefor. Quartermasters and paymasters clerks are affected by this order.

Chamberlain Declines Office.

WASHINGTON May 19.—Monday last Secretary Sherman tendered the appointment of Solicitor of the Treasury to ex-Governor Chamberlain, at the instance of the President, who also urged its acceptance. The governor declined however, on account of professional engagements, regarded advantageous professionally and pecuniarily. The governor had an interview with the President to day, and leaves to-night for South Carolina to close up private business.

Notable Death.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—James Mandeville Carlisle, many years a leading member of the bar of the District of Columbia and Supreme Court died this morning, aged 65.

A Vacant Ministry.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Edward P. Beale, who arrived at home in this city a few days ago, tendered his resignation as U. S. Minister to Austria, to take effect upon the appointment of his successor.

Removal.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The removal of Jas. L. Calloway as secretary of the Territory of Montana, James H. Mills having been appointed in his place, is a necessary sequel to Gov. Potts' vindication. Calloway has been one of the most active promoters of the charge against the governor. There has long been a bitter quarrel between them.

Relief from Duty.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Surgeon James C. Bailey has been relieved from duty in the Department of California.

MEXICO.

Diaz' Cabinet.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A usually well informed Mexican correspondent says the following will be Diaz' cabinet: Camacona, minister of foreign affairs, Gen Manuel Gonzales, minister of war, Matias Romero, minister of the treasury, Joaquin Ruiz, minister of the interior, Gabriel Mancero, minister of public works, Ignacio Ramirez, actual incumbent, will probably remain in the department of justice. Zamacona and Romero are both well known and esteemed at Washington. Their appointment would be considered a strong bid for American favor and friendship. Mancera is considered the best railroad authority in Mexico, is practical and progressive, and supported General Rosecrans in his efforts to secure a charter for a general system of railroads for Mexico, and has always encouraged American enterprise there. Diaz freely declares his ambition to cultivate and develop cordial diplomatic and close commercial relations with the United States. It looks as if Diaz was trying, by the wisdom of his administration, to make the nation forget the irregularity of his elevation.

CANADA.

Tornado in Canada.

MONTREAL, May 18.—A hurricane swept the village of St. Hyppolite. The new Catholic church and several houses were blown down. Two brothers named Bhileau, who were working in the church, were killed, their father and another badly wounded.

QUEBEC May 20.—Fifteen buildings were blown down near Joliet by a storm last night.

THE TERRITORIES.

Logging business is very lively about the upper parts of Puget Sound.

Hop vines in Puyallup valley are already feeling for the tops of the poles.

Hammond's mariene railway at Seattle is progressing rapidly. It is expected that a large number of vessels will be pulled out on it for repair the coming summer.

At Dungeness, W. T., on the 5th inst. two boys were playing with a rifle when it went off, the ball striking one of the boys, William Burns, in the left side, just above the heart, killing him almost instantly.

Two gamblers from Portland had a row at Tacoma with a saloon keeper named Long pray last Wednesday, over a game of cards. Nine shots were fired. Longpray came out unharmed, but one of his adversaries was shot in the leg and badly beaten over the head, and the other suffered considerable injuries.

An attempt to "crack" Schwabacher's large safe at Seattle on the night of the 16th failed. The burglars had worked with energy, but the approach of day compelled them to desist. They got the outside doors open, and drilled several holes through the inside doors. A large amount of money was in the safe. The work was very skillful.

Tacoma Herald: The discovery of the Puyallup coal has brought about a combination of elements which promise to revolutionize the coal trade on this Coast. A thorough test has proven the quality and extent of coal in these fields to be highly satisfactory. The reputation of these mines is causing the consumers of coal to seriously consider the propriety of changing their orders in future from other mines to the products of the Puyallup coal fields. This is owing to the acquired superiority in quality of the newly discovered product.

A meeting of many citizens of Polk and Yamhill counties was held at Dallas on Friday both to consider the transportation question. Resolutions were passed inviting the shippers of Willamette valley to unite with the P. P. F. Co. in buying or building boats, and also to place canvassers in the field to solicit stock for the same. The following persons were named for this last purpose: Isaac Smith, of Bridgeport precinct; J. B. Stump, Buena Vista; Ira Townsend, Salt Lake; Jas. Mattoon, Ladd's; Wm. Savage, Douglas; James Lawson, Dallas; D. Gibson, Luckiamute; J. B. Butler and I. M. Bewley, Monmouth; B. F. Smith, Luckiamute; C. I. Wait, Bethel; T. J. Butler, Jackson. The resolutions also secured the locks company.

Last Wednesday at Grant's creek Smith Peterson, eldest son of Martin Peterson, was killed by the accidental discharge of a derringer in his pocket. He was returning from Roseburg to Jacksonville. He and some of his fellow teamsters had been shooting at a mark, and he was replacing the pistol in his pocket when it was discharged.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Scene in the French Chamber.

VERSAILLES, May 19.—The following is a description of the scene in the Chamber of Deputies to day. When De Fourton new minister of the interior, mounted the tribune to read President MacMahon's message an uproar arose from the Left. Many nominal exclamations were used. A member shouted "To the pillory." Cassignac retorted "Down with the factious minority!" After the message had been read, Gambetta tried to speak, but was prevented by shouts from the right, some exclaiming "Down with the dictators." The scene was tumultuous. Grevy, president of Chambers, decided that the message having been received no debate is possible until the house reassembled. The future must be awaited with prudence, firmness and confidence. The House then adjourned, the members shouting, "Vive la Republique." In the Senate, Berenger seconded the tribune. The president announced that the government wished to address the Senate. An animated discussion ensued as to who should speak. Ultimately Duke de Broglie the new president of the council of ministers communicated President MacMahon's message. Marcouis de Fourcher and Jules Simon both tried to speak, but Duke de Broglie exclaimed, "Nobody can speak!" The speaking is adjourned. Tolaine retorted. "The president and not Duke de Broglie has to direct debate." Jules Simon began, "I am obliged, to my great regret," when Duke de Broglie interrupted, saying, "All now spoken is illegal. The president told Simon that President MacMahon has exercised his right. His decree must be obeyed. Simon then left the tribune under protest. Bernard shouted "The country will judge you!" The Senate then adjourned amid a tumult. Nearly all the former reactionary prefects were in the lobbies awaiting the new ministers of interior. A meeting of the Left took place at Paris to night. Marcere, former minister of the interior was chairman. He said the composition of the new government revealed intentions calculated to inspire the nation with legitimate distrust, because men are returned to power, who on the 24th of May, 1873 undertook to restore monarchy. The meeting adopted the following manifesto to the nation. The decree assailing your representatives is the first act of the ministry, which presumes to hold the will of France in check. The President's message displays a desire to dissolve the Chamber. The cabinet, which had not lost its majority has been dismissed without discussion. The new ministry, feeling as if they would immediately fall from power, have prevented our expression of reprobation of their proceedings from the tribune, consequently, our first thought is to turn toward you and say that the men now again assuming power will again prove themselves powerless. France desires the republic. She said so on the 20th of February, 1876, and she will say so again when consulted. France will neither allow herself to be deceived or intimidated."

MacMahon Fiercely Assailed.

PARIS, May 18.—Republican papers continue to express the greatest indignation against the new ministry, declaring the party will neither recoil from dissolution nor from external complications. Denunciation of illegality and fatal consequences of President MacMahon's action is equally strong. General dismissal of republican functionaries and strong measures against the radical press are expected immediately. There was a meeting of a hundred Senators of the Left to-night. Simon said he had wished to declare from the tribune that if it were intended to stifle discussion, words should not be used which challenge protest. Victor Hugo protested against the disturbance of tranquility, especially at a moment when dangers are threatened from abroad. The meeting finally drew up a procès verbal protesting against the system of tactics which prevented liberty of discussion. It concluded as follows: Considering that the present crisis which has been raised without any reason amidst profound peace in the country, and in the presence of events abroad, alarms the interests of the country and justifies every distrust, it is necessary to reassure France. Senators of the Left, therefore, express their firm conviction that the Senate will not associate itself with any undertaking against republican institutions, and they declare they will energetically resist a policy which threatens public peace. This vigorous protest and manifesto of Deputies are producing a great impression. A new prorogation is expected and a dissolution of three months. There is great excitement in Paris and the provinces, but no disturbances.

Further of French Politics.

LONDON, May 18.—The Standard's Paris dispatch says there is no excitement in quarters of the working classes, but large patrols of infantry scour the outer boulevards from sunset to sunrise. Friday evening there was great excitement on the boulevards, huge crowds kept scouring to and fro discussing events of the day. Gambetta, speaking at a meeting of the Left, at Versailles, said: "We shall all be united before universal suffrage. Remember the Polignac ministry of 1830. Limited suffrage returned the same chamber the ministry dissolved. We must hurry on to dissolution."

The article in the St. Petersburg Official Gazette which attracted so much attention contained the following: "The turn affairs is taking in France is calculated to inspire Germany and her close friend, Italy, with most serious reflections. A victory of Ultramontanes in France occurring simultaneously with the Ultramontane victory in the Italian Senate is fraught with gravest consequences. Germany cannot remain indifferent. It is incumbent on her to display greatest watchfulness. The victory of Roman curia opens a prospect of a war of revenge, and it is only through alliance with France that the curia can find possibility of war against Germany and Italy."

German papers almost unanimously consider Simon's overthrow an Ultramontane victory. They think that Marshal MacMahon complies with the pretensions of the clericals, the peace of Europe would be seriously threatened. The whole Italian press thinks Jules Simon's dismissal excessively serious.

Temps quotes from the St Petersburg Official Gazette which points significantly to a war of revenge against Germany.

PARIS, May 19.—The Republican Left has ordered its bureau to remain in Paris, in constant communication with members during recess.

Lively Times in the Chamber of Deputies.

LONDON May 19.—The Standard's Versailles dispatch says of the scene in the Chamber previous to adjournment, that some members were actually scuffling.

The Tumult in France.

PARIS, May 19.—The Republican journals are occupied in the discussion of the manifesto of the Republican senators and deputies. They declare republican France surprised but not alarmed and confident of the future. The Journal des Debats demands that the government consult the country immediately and thus terminate the crisis. The Republique Francaise says President MacMahon's message allies him personally with this movement. It advises republicans to avoid bravado and act calmly. The Constitutional and Paris Journal defend MacMahon's course as perfectly legal.

There has signed a manifesto of the deputies of the Left.

The Mandataire states that two deputies have drawn up a proposal for the impeachment of President MacMahon.

It is officially announced that Baron Reille, Bonapartist deputy for Tarn has been appointed under secretary for the interior department.

LONDON May 19.—The Times editorial says MacMahon's course hitherto was entirely legal, and he might even dissolve Parliament if the Senate consented.

SETTLEMENT WITH INDIANS.

For several years there have been troubles between bands of non-treaty Nez Perces and the settlers in several localities in the vicinity of Snake river. Last November a commission of the Indian department visited the Lapwai agency to investigate the matter. The result was a strong report to the authorities at Washington, which prepared the way for a permanent settlement of the disorders. It can now be announced that the settlement is complete. Under instructions from Washington, and in co-operation with Agent Monteith, of Lapwai, Gen. Howard took the field about the 16th ult. to bring the dispute a termination. Troops were sent to occupy the ground in controversy. Two companies under Colonel Whipple were moved across the Blue mountains and up to the entrance of Wallowa valley. Another company was sent to Lewiston. A delegation of Joseph's Indians was met at Walla Walla, and they were told that if they were willing to come to terms they could assemble at Lapwai within twelve days. Meanwhile a talk was had with Indians at Wallula who had strayed from several reservations, and they were informed that government had decided that they must return and stay where they belong. There was a great deal of grumbling among them, but force was at hand and they seemed to think it prudent to obey. While the troops were moving over to Wallowa Gen. Howard and Agent Monteith gathered up Joseph's band, White Bird's band from Salmon river, and a band from the Palouse country, and had them at council at Lapwai. A good deal of opposition was manifested. One of the most obstinate of the Indians was placed in the guard house for six days, and the rest were intimidated by a display of force and a manifest purpose to employ it if necessary. All agreed to come upon the reservation with their families and stock, and remain there. Thirty-five days was the longest time allowed. It is believed there will be no further trouble with these Indians. For a long time they have been a pest to the settlements, and there has been a good deal of fear that they would resort to violence and murder. Troops are so distributed as to compel obedience to the agreement made by the Indians, and it is confidently believed that the troublesome controversy with them is over. It might have been terminated long ago had the authorities at Washington acted with any show of resolution. Settlers in Wallowa valley and in the Palouse country will now be rid of annoyance and danger. The promptitude with which Gen. Howard and Agent Monteith settled this matter as soon as they could get orders to proceed with it, is creditable to them, and they will receive the thanks of all the people of that region.

"BRITISH INTERESTS."

A few days ago the telegraph reported that an agent of the Ottoman government was about to leave for London to make an effort to negotiate a loan to carry on the war; but a London dispatch added that the effort would be altogether useless, and surprise was expressed that Turkey should have assurance to offer a loan in England. Explanation of this is furnished by the publication of certain facts relative to the condition of loans heretofore made to the Turkish government by English capitalists. During twenty years, beginning with 1854, Turkey was a large borrower in England. The loans began in order to meet the expenses of the last war with Russia, and were continued every year down to 1874, when they ceased in consequence of repudiation of a large portion of the interest. Loans of English capital to Turkey during these twenty years aggregate the enormous sum of $924,908,015, to which should be added a floating debt of about $150,000,000 due to English ship-builders, manufacturers and others. Here is a total exceeding half of our entire national debt. A decree issued by the Porte in 1875 arbitrarily reduced the interest to one-half the rate stipulated in the loans. These facts explain why English capitalists do not now respond to the further demand for money. Moreover the whole debt is rendered precarious by the possible overthrow of the Turkish government in the present war. Desire to preserve this debt of one thousand millions is in itself powerful enough to make a strong sentiment in England in favor of participation in the war in behalf of Turkey. The conservative influence of big loans is one of the strongest forces in maintaining the "equilibrium" of Europe. England would be expected to fight, of course, before she would see this debt annihilated. For the money itself, says the Chicago Tribune, "the Porte has nothing to show but a fleet of ironclads and a number of well-stocked seraglios. Considerable of the money went to Paris to buy fashionable fineries for the harems, and some to the Clyde for the ironclads." What is meant by "British interests," of which so much is heard in connection with the debates on England's attitude toward the belligerents, will be understood by considering the fact of this huge debt and the status of her commercial relations with the East, so greatly disturbed by the war.

A telegram received in this city yesterday from Senator Mitchell gives information that Professor Livingstone Stone, by direction of Professor Baird, of the United States Fish Commission, will leave Washington City by the middle of the present week for Oregon, to take charge of the enterprise for the artificial propagation of salmon in the waters of the Columbia river. By the leading business men of Portland and Astoria, and the proprietors of the principal fisheries, the sum of $30,000 has been subscribed for this purpose, which will be ample for the present year's work, including the expense of starting the hatching establishment. Professor Stone has the skill in the propagation of fish which comes from long experience. He had charge of the hatching establishment on McCloud river, in Northern California, in 1872, which was very successful. In the prosecution of the work of the Fish Commission he also visited Oregon, and in his report embodied many important facts relative to fish in the Columbia river and its tributaries. It is gratifying to be able to announce that the artificial propagation of salmon in the Columbia is a fixed fact. Those who realize the magnitude of the salmon fisheries will comprehend the importance of this announcement.

Again we are reminded that Oregon's pioneers are passing rapidly away. The death of Alonzo A. Skinner is now announced. It took place on the 30th of April at Santa Barbara, California, whither he had gone in the hope of recovering his health, which for a year or two had been infirm. Judge Skinner came to Oregon in 1845. He was a judge under the provisional government before the organization of the Territory. In 1853 he was a candidate for delegate to Congress against Gen. Lane. By appointment from Governor Woods he was judge of the second judicial district of the State in 1869-70. Subsequently he was deputy collector of customs at Empire City. Judge Skinner was a very estimable man, performed all duties efficiently, possessed great suavity of manners had liberal culture and was always known for probity and honor. The age he reached was, we think, nearly seventy.

Says the New York Times in an article entitled "The Unpalatable Truth:"

The special inquiries conducted in the South in behalf of this journal, reveal a condition of things which cannot add to the happiness of the amiable Republicans who see in the executive policy the dawn of the millennium. Nowhere have our correspondents indicated a break, or the sign of a break, in the Democratic ranks in any Southern State as a result of the President's kindly efforts.

It is evident that the Times considers the Republican party annihilated in the South; also that though it does not openly condemn the President's policy, it thinks that conciliation is wasted on the Southern Democracy. Its comments reported by telegraph to day on a special election held in South Carolina is in the same line of criticism.

According to the Olympia Transcript, the federal office-holders of Washington Territory have received new light. It says that for years past "fealty to the administration and loyalty to the ring were the only true qualifications for office." Now, however, "their organ claims that President Hayes has changed the rule on this subject," and they needn't support the administration unless they want to. Don't be absurd, Transcript. Now that the office-holder is a free man let him enjoy it, and even make a boast of it, if he likes. Never mind any little inconsistency.

Ex-Gov. Chamberlain does himself credit by declining an important official position tendered him by the President. It was not because he wanted an office that he asserted his right to be Governor of South Carolina, and it is an honor to him not to accept another office in lieu of it. This is a man of high character, not a jobber in politics. Unfortunately so much cannot be said for Packard, who has applied for two or three offices since he was forced to relinquish his claim to the position of Governor.

It seems to be the old Henry rifle, so familiar once to American borderers, that has so greatly surprised the Russians. It is not considered a first-class gun now with us, having been superseded by rifles of more approved styles.

A CARD IN REPLY.
PORTLAND, May 20, 1877.
A card in last evening's Standard from Mrs. Mary Hurley, states that she brought a dog from Oregon City supposing it to belong to Geo. T. Reid, but it proved to be mine, yet I refused to pay her even for the transportation of the dog from Oregon City, though it is a valuable animal. I did not see Mrs. Hurley at all, and never before heard of her. The dog was in the hands of a boy who asked for no reward, but left the animal with the colored man who had been accustomed to keep him. The dog is of no value to me, and the lady, if she thinks he is a "noble dog," is welcome to take him.

OREGON MINES.—We have from time to time called attention to the undeveloped mineral resources of Oregon, but owing to the anxiety of our people to put their farms in a proper state of cultivation, the mines have been inevitably neglected; but now that our State has become the leading agricultural State in the Union, some efforts should be made to bring into requisition the best mineral deposits already known to exist in both Southern and Eastern Oregon. Since the Comstock lode, which has produced so large a proportion of our gold and silver, has passed into the hands of unscrupulous speculators, preventing the well meaning capitalists investing their money without the fear of being swindled, they have been in search of new mining fields, where they can invest their money in an honest and legitimate enterprise. That Oregon is the place fixed upon, is made manifest by the fact of their sending an expert of experience to examine the mineral resources of our State, and if the report be satisfactory (which we are certain will be), from the fact that the mines are good, and the gentleman who has come here is well informed both in theory and practice. Mr. J. M. Terman, the gentleman referred to, has been for a long time Deputy United States Inspector of Mines, and has had years of experience in the working of some of the best paying mines on the Pacific coast. We understand he starts for the Southern districts this morning.

TRANSGRESSORS.—A man in the employ of Mr. Wm. Sherlock, assaulted a colored person named Melville a few days ago with a hoe, during an altercation. Melville's head was severely cut with the implement. He had the person who assaulted him arrested on a warrant issued from Justice Davis' court. An examination of the case was had before Judge Davis, who held the defendant to answer the charge before the next grand jury in the sum of $250. Not being able to furnish the bonds required, the individual was committed to the county jail. Saturday afternoon a man named Robert Williams was tried in the police court on a charge of purloining a bolt of flannel from the store of Mr. Selling. Evidence of the defendant's guilt being conclusive, the court sentenced him to the county jail for the period of 40 days, in default of paying a fine of $50.

A GOOD "JOAK."—A correspondent writing from Astoria under date of the 17th, sends the following good joke on our friend John Jack: "Mr. Jack and his excellent Company, are playing here to crowded houses and are well worth the patronage of this community. On the bill may be seen 'Admission, one salmon, 50c.' Last evening, a number of the young bloods took salmon as admission money. Of course, they were accepted, but when they were produced at the canneries for their equivalent in coin, they were found to be 'steel heads,' and worth nothing. Good joke on Jack."

WHITE CLAY.—As the question of white clay has been recently discussed in the columns of the OREGONIAN, the following note written from Roseburg is published for what it is worth: "An excellent article of white clay can be found on Mr. T. AMUSEMENTS.

ALLEGHANIANS.—Mr. Van Horn, the advance agent for the Alleghanians, is in the city making arrangements for the early appearance in Portland of this well and favorably known combination of vocalists and Swiss Bell ringers. The Alleghanians are announced to appear at Masonic Hall Monday evening, 28th inst.

LEOTARD'S BENEFIT.—This evening, Mons. Leotard, the celebrated magician, acrobat and trapeze performer, will be the recipient of a grand complimentary benefit tendered him by a number of citizens of Portland. On this occasion Mons. Leotard will appear in a number of his great specialties. He will be assisted by Madame Leotard and Cemevilna Leotard, the wonderful child, in the character of the "Flying Angel." There are a large number of volunteers, and a performance in every respect worthy of public patronage will be given. The performance will conclude with the "Flying Leap for Life," and a triple trapeze by Mons. Leotard, who has been styled the "King of the Air." Mons. Leotard assures those who attend a rich surprise. Reserved seats can be procured at Gray's Music Store without extra charge.

OPERA COMPANY.—Saturday afternoon the Bagley and Comic Opera Company gave a matinee performance at New Market Theater, on which occasion "The Bohemian Girl" was repeated in a very acceptable style. In the evening, the second and third acts of "Mariana," was presented, concluding with Offenbach's comic operetta, "The Rose of Auvergne." Thus concluded the brief operatic season in Portland by this talented company. It remains a source of regret that their efforts to please, entertain and edify the public, have not been accorded a support more hearty and substantial. This morning the company will start for a short professional tour east of the Cascades. They will appear at the Dalles this evening in "Grand Duchess." Only one performance will be given at that place. At Walla Walla the company will open on Wednesday evening for a very brief season. The initial performance will be "Grand Duchess." The members of this company are thorough artistes professionally speaking, and in private life are perfect ladies and gentlemen. They leave behind them pleasant impressions and a host of friends.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The following order (being general orders No. 4), will require no explanation.:

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF REPUBLIC,
SAN FRANCISCO, May 1, 1877.

In accordance with the rules and regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, May 30th will be observed as a Memorial Day, to be observed with appropriate ceremonies in the decoration of the graves of our fallen comrades to whose loyalty and heroism we are indebted for an undivided Union, and the perpetuation of those institutions dear to the heart of every loyal citizen.

Wherever Posts of the Grand Army exist, the ceremony will be conducted by them in such a manner as may in their judgment be deemed proper, but it is suggested that they invite the co-operation of other organizations, and of the public in general observance of the day.

Where no Posts are established, all ex soldiers, sailors and loyal citizens are requested to unite in rendering a fit tribute to the memory of our illustrious dead who, with God and the right upon their side, died to save our nation's life.

All churches of whatever denomination, are earnestly invited to hold commemorative services on the preceding Sabbath (May 27th), and their pastors to preach appropriate Memorial sermons.

It is hoped that the beautiful custom of decorating the graves of our dead heroes with floral offerings, which has prevailed in preceding years, will be generally observed, and that the loyal citizens throughout this State will cheerfully respond to the call of those having charge of the ceremony, by generous donations of flowers. By order of

PICNICS.

ANOTHER PICNIC.—As will be observed by referring to the advertising columns, the Sunday schools connected with the Taylor street M. E. church and the North Portland Sunday school will unite and hold their annual picnic and excursion next Saturday. Full particulars will be given in subsequent issues.

ST. ANDREW'S PICNIC.—This Society propose to give their annual picnic at Aurora next Saturday, the 26th inst. The picnic is intended to be a select affair to a certain extent, more particularly for members of the Society and their friends. The excursionists will take the morning train, and arriving at Aurora, will repair at once to the beautiful grove, situated a short distance away. A programme of sports has been prepared by the committee which cannot fail to prove attractive and interesting to participants and spectators. The following order of exercises will in the main be carried out: March from depot to grounds—music by pipers; dance, Highland Fling, by a member. Interval. Race for boys, 12 years and under, prize; race for girls, 15 years and under, prize; game, Hop Step and Jump. Recess for dinner. Dance, "Gillie Callum," or Sword Dance by a member; games, Tossing the Caber, Throwing the Hammer and Quoits; Long Race for men, 200 yards; Sack Race; game, Putting the Stone; Blind Race; Ladies' Race, Running Leap, dancing, &c.

EXCURSION TO THE CASCADES.—The prediction made by a great many persons Saturday morning, that the proposed excursion, gotten up by the Ladies' Relief Society of the East Portland M. E. church, would prove a failure on account of the weather was a mistake, for notwithstanding the rain came down at a lively rate nearly all day, a very large crowd of people, from both sides of the river, boarded the steamer E. N. Cobb, and at 8 o'clock were off for the Cascades of the great Columbia, where nature is well known to have put up some of the grandest scenery to be found on the Pacific coast. The trip has been often described and the public is so familiar with the scenes encountered, that a rehearsal of the beauties and grandeur of the river and mountains is unnecessary here. Many exclamations of admiration from the excursionists, as view after view burst upon their vision as the boat ascended the majestic Columbia, evinced how well they were pleased for the trip. The Northwestern Band was along and at frequent intervals discoursed good music, and other instrumental as well as vocal music was furnished by parties on board. The storm scene at the Cascades, as the dark billows of clouds, compressed by the tall mountains on either side, though not a pleasant thing for picnic parties, was one of the grandest scenes of the day. The whole affair, notwithstanding the rain, was very successful, both in a financial sense and as a means of enjoyment to those who participated.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Wednesday evening of the present week, the Alpha Literary Society, will give a musical and literary entertainment at Taylor street M. E. church. Among other attractive and interesting features, Alfred Tennyson's beautiful poem, "The May Queen," will be read, and the various scenes represented by tableaux. The entertainment gives promise of proving very enjoyable. Tickets can be procured at J. K. Gill & Co.'s book-store.

THE WILLAMETTE BRIDGE QUESTION.

Saturday morning Judge J. H. Woodward delivered the following opinion in relation to the application for a bridge across the Willamette river:

In the matter of the petition of the citizens of Multnomah county, praying that the County Court cause a bridge to be constructed across the Willamette river at Portland, and a remonstrance thereto.

The petitioners, representing themselves as resident tax-payers in said county, and numbering about 1,000, by their attorney, M. C. George, Esq., appeared in this court on the 16th day of April, 1877, and asked and obtained leave to file the petition of petitioners, which is as follows:

To the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah: We, the undersigned residents and tax payers of said county, respectfully represent to your honorable body that the trade, commerce and travel between the cities of Portland and East Portland and the adjacent country is now so great as to demand that said cities be connected by a bridge across the Willamette river.

We, therefore, pray that a bridge be constructed as aforesaid, at the expense of the county, and that when completed a reasonable toll be collected from the travel on the same until the county shall be reimbursed for the expense of building said bridge, after which it shall be free to all travel.

At the date of filing said petition the court fixed the 25th day of April, 1877, for hearing such petition and any objection that might be made thereto, on the day last named the petitioners appeared in court, by M. C. George, Esq., and there being no objection to such petition made or filed, and no one appearing to object, the court heard argument in support of the petition.

Subsequently, and on May 9, 1877, Geo. H. Durham, M. V. Thompson and W. W. Page, Esqrs., appeared in this court and asked and obtained leave to file a remonstrance to the prayer of said petition, signed by about 252 citizens and taxpayers, reciting that: "Believing that the scheme of building a bridge across the Willamette river at Portland, by taxation of the people of this county for that purpose, is ill timed, impolitic and fraught with hardship and injustice under the present condition of affairs, we, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of said county, would respectfully remonstrate against said scheme."

Together with remonstrance as above filed, was filed a statement by thirty-six persons who had signed the petition, asking that their names be not considered as favorable to the petition and concurring substantially in the remonstrance.

Arguments of counsel were heard on the subject of the petitioners and remonstrators, and the court held the matter for advisement.

Now at this time the court having fully considered the matter of the petition and remonstrance thereto, here states the conclusions of the court upon the questions involved therein and some of the reasons which determine the same. The opinion of the court now here made must of necessity be extra judicial, as there is no proceeding before the court upon which a decree could be predicated. The statutes of the State define the duties of the court in the matter of building bridges upon the highway roads within the county, whether the bridges be required over larger or smaller streams there is no distinction or limitation made by the statute. The court must therefore consider the petition and remonstrance, as they were no doubt intended by the respective parties who signed each as suggestive to this court of the judgment and the wishes of the persons signing, and as such the court most cheerfully and as duty bound gives the fullest and most careful consideration.

Upon the general question of the commerce between all sections of a country, whether it be larger or smaller, it must be considered an axiom in political economy that the more free and unhindered intercourse among the people can be made for the purpose of trade and commerce the more rapidly will be developed the natural wealth and prosperity of the community and of the individuals composing it. And while this must we think be admitted true as a general proposition this court is of the opinion that the general proposition stated, when made especial and applied to the particular case now being considered by the court, has peculiar significance and demands more than the casual consideration of thoughtful men looking to the material development of this county, and particularly to the growth and prosperity of the city of Portland.

The outlying lands from this city embracing a very large area easterly back to the Cascades and extending southerly far into Clackamas county are for the purpose of the trade and the business of the people who shall occupy them tributary only to the city of Portland. And although very fertile and productive when cultivated, these lands now in comparatively unoccupied and uncultivated, and this, notwithstanding the fact that during the year past, many thousands of thrifty immigrants have landed at this port seeking homes and lands, and at this time it is believed that several hundred immigrants are arriving weekly in quest of homes and lands to cultivate, and that of the whole number very few indeed, after a fair investigation, stop or locate upon lands in this county or in the portion of Clackamas county referred to, but prefer to go into interior portions of the State at much greater distances from this city, which is and must continue to be the ultimate market for the products of the farms of this State seeking the general markets of the world.

Men as a rule do not act in a given direction without a moving cause impelling them to that action, and may we not find the moving cause as to these immigrants in the fact that they see here running between the lands they might desire and the only market accessible, a river impassable except by delay and considerable expense. Farmers cannot afford and will not readily consent to place themselves in an attitude to be taxed at from $25 to $150 per year upon their industries. In other words all men will do the best they can for themselves according to their best judgment.

The court does not think an argument necessary to prove that the city of Portland or nothing would be more surely and rapidly built up in matter of wealth and the value of city property than by a dense population and thorough cultivation of its outlying lands, unless indeed it might be through extensive manufacturing enterprises which are not imminent nor to be reached at the present time. And as this court believes the surest way to reach the end desired is to render the means of communication between all sections as free and unhindered as possible, and in a manner calculated to serve the interests of the city and county are not divergent but entirely coincident and parallel, we must hold that the prayer of the petition is in the right direction, and it remains to be considered whether the end proposed is within reach at the present time.

The court is aware that there were arguments urged on the part of the petitioners which were pertinent and are entitled to much consideration, and which are not specially alluded to by the court here, such for instance as of the increased value of property contributing to the burthen of taxation and many others.

Is the proposition then to build a bridge across the Willamette river at Portland by the county of Multnomah, practical or feasible at this time?

The Constitution of Oregon, article II, section 10, limits the indebtedness which may be incurred by any county within the State for the purpose of internal improvements to $5,000 in the aggregate, so that whatever is done in the direction proposed must be on a pay-as-we-go basis. Upon the best information the court has been able to obtain, we conclude that a good and sufficient wagon and foot bridge, constructed of wood, resting upon piers of sufficient height, and with proper draw, a structure which should last from 20 to 25 years without any considerable repairs, can be built across the Willamette river at any point between the Pacific Wharf and Smith and Bost's mill for an outlay of the sum of about $125,000. There is no warrant by the law as it now stands for this court to build and maintain a toll bridge, as prayed for, and the court very much questions if a policy of the county maintaining a toll bridge in any event.

Assuming then that the persons who could upon the proposed plan of the petition pay for the bridge by their tolls, and who are more directly benefited by a work of this kind, for the purpose of building a bridge which should be at once free to all travel, would place in the treasury of the county the sum of about $30,000 or $40,000. Then a levy of from 4½ to 5 mills on the dollar for two consecutive years would accomplish the work. We do not think the difference between the petitioners and remonstrators so wide as at first view might appear, but is due mainly to the different standpoint from which each view the question in the matter of cost. Surely the court would be slow to believe that many of the persons whose names appear in the remonstrance were lacking in public spirit, and, indeed, in good earnest business judgment to a degree which would lead them to oppose an out lay such as we have heretofore indicated for the object proposed. We must rather conclude that the large majority of those who remonstrated and indeed all unless a very few who have purely selfish motives base their objections and their opposition to the enterprise upon the belief that the work would cost as argued by the counsel who appeared for the remonstrance, (but without exhibiting any figures or data in support of the assertion), anywhere from $250,000 to $500,000. We think that estimates which have been made by competent engineers and architects for the cost of building an iron structure with two draws, all elaborately finished, are not the true figures to set against a good, sufficient wooden structure, which last we would say the people of this county until the building of a $500,000 bridge would not be so great a burden as the building of a $100,000 bridge at the present time.

While the statutes of the State Circuit Court, sec. 870, subdivision 4, confers jurisdiction upon the County Courts either for county business "to provide for the erection and repairing within the county of public bridges upon any road or highway established by public authority," we find that the Legislature has provided, by an act passed at the same session—Mis. Laws, chap. 50, title 5, sec. 71—"That the County Courts of the several counties in this State be and are hereby authorized to apply, in their discretion, any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated toward defraying the expense of the building or repairing bridges on any of the county or State roads within their respective counties." So that while the general grant of jurisdiction would be broad enough to authorize the County Court to build bridges on the streets of a city, they being roads or highways established by public authority, yet we think it must fairly be held that the subsequent enactment was intended to operate as a definition by the Legislature of the grant of jurisdiction and a limitation upon it confining the action of the court to the building of bridges on county or state roads, unless indeed a street of a city was at the same time a county or State road as it is in some instances. By a common and well known rule the two statutes must be considered together. This court then can only build a bridge across the Willamette river on a county or State road, which shall have been regularly established in manner provided by law, taking in its description and survey the position of the river lying in its line.

There is a road of this character across the river at Stark street and leading on to the Sandy. There is another, a State road leading from Lafayette in Yamhill county, approaching the river on what is called the Canyon road in this county, and leading down Jefferson street in Portland to the center of First street, but this last is not laid across the river, nor indeed does it reach it, so that until further action be had in the matter of locating a county road which shall lead across the Willamette there is but the one road at Stark street, where the County Court would have authority under the law to construct a bridge. We don't inquire what power or authority is now vested in this court to establish a county road leading across the Willamette river nearly the same and upon the same proceedings as in any other direction unless it shall be found that the legislature has detracted from the jurisdiction of this court given by the general statutes.

By a special act of the legislative assembly, approved Oct. 25, 1870, incorporating the city of East Portland, Art. I, Sec. 2, defines the corporate limits of East Portland and makes the center of the Willamette river the boundary line on the west.

That by a further act of the legislative assembly, approved October 25, 1872, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the city of East Portland, by section 34 of said last mentioned act, there is excepted out of the jurisdiction of the county court of Multnomah county, given by the general statutes, the territory within the limits of East Portland for the following purposes, to-wit: "To divide the same or any part thereof into road districts, or to appoint road supervisors of road districts for any part thereof, or to lay out, open or work on highways therein." This last act has been by the supreme court of the State at its last term, held constitutional and valid. So that it must be seen that this court has not jurisdiction to lay out or open a county road leading across the Willamette river further than to the boundary line of the city of East Portland, to wit: the center of the river.

It may be said that the city of East Portland will give all needful authority, but this it cannot do; it is impossible for a party to give a court jurisdiction of a subject matter by any act on their part when that jurisdiction is not given by law or is directed by the law. A party by consent may give a court jurisdiction of the person but not of the subject matter.

There is further but the road at Stark street we have heretofore mentioned, where this court could erect a bridge across the Willamette river without further legislation. And this leads us to an examination of the question of the permanent right of the United States to regulate commerce, among the several States granted to the general government by the people. Constitution of the United States, Art. I, sec. 8, sub. 8, under which it has uniformly been held that as to navigable streams entirely within a single State, that the State authorities, when Congress has failed to exercise its authority, has power and jurisdiction to use the stream as not materially to hinder navigation, and for this purpose may bridge such streams in such places, and in such way, by observing the proper precautions of draws etc., as shall not materially hinder and delay commerce by the water. And while this court is clearly of the opinion that no court would enjoin the building of a bridge across the Willamette river at the foot of Jefferson st. west or Columbia street, in the city of Portland, the proper precautions being observed for draws, and that, if issued, an injunction would not be held good by a court of final resort, yet we are not at all clear that the building of a bridge at Stark street, at the very center of a commercial city, would not be enjoined by the courts, and if not, that it would by act of Congress be abated as a nuisance on account of its obstruction to navigation in commerce upon the water, or even though it would be allowed to stand by the courts and Congress that it would be found desirable or advantageous to the general public, owing to the necessity of an open draw, at some seasons of the year much of the time, and the yearly increasing as the city grows in commercial importance. Our conclusion must therefore be, that while the advantages to be derived by the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river at this place, is in our judgment sufficient to warrant the expenditure for bridge proposed by this county in amount and manner as herein indicated, yet that the court lacks the power and authority to do the act until the stumbling block—the amended charter of East Portland—is removed by legislation; and in the meantime it would be well to procure authority from the Congress of the United States by legislative enactment (which is easily had) removing all question in that direction.

Nerves that Quiver,

Heads that ache, stomachs that inflict dyspeptic torments, muscles and joints racked with the rheumatism, are infallibly restored to health by the celebrated elixir Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine prescribed by physicians, possessing infinite purity, and which no one takes in vain who is afflicted with any of the numerous complaints to which it is adapted. It frequently happens that so-called remedies fail to produce a permanent effect. This is because they are merely palliatives and do not remove the cause of the maladies, whose symptoms they affect a time only to ameliorate. This is notably the case with opiates and sedative drugs. It is not so, however, with Hostetter's Bitters, which are a searching specific that conquers the disease as well as banishes its indicia.

Swain, Anderson & Mahum have taken out considerable money having made a little over $7 per day to the hand, since their commencement of mining operations last fall.

Albany Democrat: C. H. Stewart, who has just returned from the Camp Creek mines informs us that the machinery for working the claims belonging to the Camp Creek Gold and Silver Mining Co., would arrive at The Dalles on the 15th or 20th of this month. He gained his information from Mr. Beemer, of Prineville, who superintends the company's business in that locality. Mr. B. was authorized to let the contract immediately for the transportation of the machinery to the Silver Wells District on Camp Creek. The machinery will probably be put into running order during the coming month, and the question as to the richness of the silver wells will then be definitely settled.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Gold in New York, 106¾.

Legal Tenders in Portland—buying 93¾; selling, 94.

Silver Coin—4@5 per cent. discount.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Wool generally dull. During the past week there has been considerable movement in California spring of higher range of quality, but on easy terms, and holders are generally disposed to meet any fair bid.

Merchandise markets generally quiet; flour not materially changed in value, but there is more demand for European export; refusals were taken on some round lots at prices formerly asked, but 25 @ above shippers' limits and bids or offers are for considerable amount and prospects are they will lead to business. Wheat dull and neglected. Barley not quotable, some California brewing shown but no bidders.

New York Shipping and Markets.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Very little activity has been noticeable at the wharves of Pacific vessels to day, and the market has a dull appearance, as the movement of many classes of goods are checked by the firmness of rates, which are steadily advancing, as the low cost ships are got out of the way. Desirable ships are not scarce, but are held at such figures that agents are almost afraid to take them. Still lines must be kept going, and if ships have got to be chartered at high cost, shippers will be obliged to pay well for freight. Freights at Boston are quiet. The Reynard finished to-day, and will sail Monday, when the Electra will take the berth

Philadelphia Shipping and Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—The market quiet. The Queenstown will take berth Monday, having been on dock for metal. The Charles Dennis, from Baltimore, had a cargo of 216 tons coal. Overland freight from Boston is more active than heretofore. Merchandise markets present the usual Saturday quietness; flour, dull and depressed; no demand; 30c lower to sell; wheat, steady; barley, dull and nominal. The barley by the Blue Jacket arrives too late for malting purposes this year, although there is a probability that some of bay brewing can be malted. The Chevalier certainly has to be carried over till next season. The cargo of the Blue Jacket is in poor order and badly wet on the lower tier, and must entail severe loss on importers Wool unchanged. Spring California attracts attention owing to cheapness; fall, dull. At Boston there has been a good demand and prices maintained. California arrives freely and meets good demand. Sales of 616,100 lbs spring at 21@33c—the latter for choice northern; 45,000 lbs fall at 18@20c; stock of latter much reduced. Hides are nominal; sales of California yesterday were 21½c. Leather quiet, prices some grades easier. Sugars more active, prices easier.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, May 19.—Wool—The demand for the past week has been good and prices firm and well sustained. Principal sales of fleece wool during the past week have been in New York; 17,000 pounds having been taken at 36@46c, including some very choice lots of old. Sales of XX Ohio was 15,000 lbs heavy at 41½c, but a good XX would bring 46@48c. Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces have been sold at 35@40c, but these prices only have been realized on account of small stocks. Sales of combing and delaine aggregate 50,500 lbs, from 40@50 for washed; 32½@37c for unwashed—market almost bare of combing. Quotations nominal; better grades of pulled have been in good demand, but low is neglected. Sales of the week have been 260,000 lbs., mostly at from 35@40c. Some choice lots of Eastern, Maine and California, superfine, sold at 42½@48c for combing, pulled at 46½c; California, good demand. Sales of week, 681,000 lbs, mostly Spring, at from 21@33c, choice northern at 30@35c.

PRATT'S MINERAL COLZA OIL.

300° FIRE TEST.

Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers.

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils.

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INvited to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colza," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils, is sufficient commendation as to its quality. It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp, it being of too heavy gravity for such use; but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction producing a pure flame of great brilliancy. Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to the use of these Oils on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows;

"Any Oil which will stand a fire test of Three Hundred (300°) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers."

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colza Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable;

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

[COPY.] BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 19th, 1876

A sample of burning Oil, marked Mineral Colza, manufactured by CHARLES PRATT & Co., of New York City, has been tested by me with the following result: It has a Fire Test of 328° Fahrenheit. It does not ignite under 328° F.

(Signed) S. DANA HAYES,
Massachusetts State Assayer.

Report of Inspector of Petroleum Oil, for State of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, October 4th 1876.

[COPY.] I have tested samples of Mineral Colza Oil, from CHARLES PRATT & Co., New York City, and find the igniting point or Fire Test to be 315° Fahrenheit. (Signed) R. F. MEANS, Mass. State Inspector of Petroleum.

Report on Sample of Mineral Colza Oil, Tested for U. S. Inspector of Steamers 3d District.

[COPY.] NEW YORK, April 25th, 1876.

MR. ADDISON LOW, U. S. Sub. Inspector.

DEAR SIR: We have tested the sample of Mineral Colza Oil presented by you, and find it stands a Fire Test of 300° Fahrenheit, and we consider it in all respects a very superior Oil.

(Signed) LOCKWOOD, BROS. & HOLLY,
Petroleum Inspectors appointed by N. Y. City Produce Exchange.

To the Trade.

The undersigned beg to call your attention to all of the above, and thus advise you that they will at all times have a full supply of the above-mentioned goods on hand, and would be pleased to have your orders.

WONDERFUL SUCCESS OF

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

In the Treatment of Chronic Disease.

Positive Proof of his Wonderful Skill.

Testimony that Cannot be Contradicted.

Reliable Witnesses Testifying What he has Done for Them.

Perfect Cures where all other Treatment had Failed.

Crowds Coming from all Parts of the Country to Visit Him.

The Following Certificates Speak for Themselves:

TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been in Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well, and am able to return to my business on the steamboats. JAMES KING.

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the palate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood vessels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer; also the diseased portion of bone and pituetary gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.

THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me now, labor seems a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.

Your's Truly, JOHN BALLARD,
Employed at Colman's Saw Mill, Seattle.

(I will not publish any cures performed by me unless by the full consent of the parties.)

PAUL M. BRENAN.

Dr. Brenan can be consulted, free of charge, at his office at the Clarendon Hotel, from 10 to 12 A. M., and at rooms 6 and 7 in Corbett's Block, corner of Front and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon, from 1:30 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.
